A Local Friend's pocket guide for Carnival
in Rio

Party like an insider!

How do Locals Enjoy Carnival in Rio?

Yes, yes... Some of the locals from Rio (the cariocas) really go to the big parade at Sapucaí Ave.

But truth is, the big majority of us spend our happy carnival days disguised, in the middle of the street, following bands that play while walking around different streets, the so called, Blocos.

Each one of them starts at a different place and time.

Today there are precisely 465 registered Blocos.

This is our Local Friend's guide and it will help choose the most authentic ones!

You can have piece of mind,

We usually choose one bloco for the morning and another one for the afternoon.

Lunchtime is perfect for refreshing in the waterfalls of Floresta da Tijuca or any of our beautiful beaches.

Share your insider moments with your friends and show the world that you are an insider in Rio's Carnival 2015!

S'more insider tips...

Hidrate yourself
at all times.

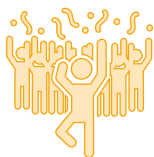

Wear sunscreen.

Keep your belongings
in safe places.

Buy a pre paid metro card in the station's machines to avoid lines.

Try to stay in front of the Blocos.

Always have cash and change on you.

Choose a great costume per day!

These are our best picks of Rio's most classic Blocos!

Our Local Friends know that there are many “rebel blocos” that aren’t registered and change their time and place sometimes.
